Folk Art Painting Workshop

with Carl Larson May 17-20, 2012

Rosemaling is used to describe a form of decorative flower painting that originated in Norway in the 1700s. The colorful folk art of Germany, Austria and Switzerland is called Bauernmalerei, or Bavarian Folk Art. Carl brings this traditional painting style to life in his fun, easy-going workshop. If you know some basic strokes, you will find this an exciting and fulfilling experience.

Carl has limited his workshops this year but he loves coming to Spokane. We're grateful that we are on his preferred list of special people.

This year's project features a white Bride's Trunk. It is approx. 12"x7" deep x 9" high. There are 10 custom boxes on order. Cost is 45.00 plus 3.92 sales tax for a total of 48.92. If you want the wood, include payment with your registration. After Mar 10 we will not promise additional boxes. If you want to work on an alternate surface Carl will help you adjust pattern to fit. Workshop cost $200.00. Wood, pattern and prep instructions should be available by late Apr - first of May. Additional shipping will be charged if wood needs to be sent to you before the workshop.

A traditional Austrian/Bavarian Bride's Trunk. The style was painted in the 1800's. It will become an heirloom piece in your family for years to come.

The original piece is on display at Spokane Art Supply (after Feb 25).

A simple reception and prep night will be Thursday from 5:30-8pm. Hours will be 9-4 Friday, Sat and Sunday. Since Carl needs to make travel plans we ask that you confirm you registration by Apr 10.
